Each day of the week has a special emphasis as follows: Sunday, Nov. 7, "We Educate for Service;" Monday, Nov. 8, "Buying Educational Service;" Tuesday, Nov. 9, "The Horace Mann Centennial;" Wednesday, Nov. 10, "Our American Youth Problem;" Thursday, Nov. 11, "Schools and the Constitution;" Friday, Nov. 12, "School Home Day;" Saturday, Nov. 13, "National Education Week."

Well-Known Artist Will Speak Here Tuesday Morning

Oscar Jacobson, Will Talk on "Modern Art" in Special Assembly

Mr. Oscar Jacobson, noted artist and lecturer, will speak in assembly at the College Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. Mr. Jacobson, who will discuss "Modern Art," is a native of Sweden and is now head of the department of art at the University of Chicago.

Widely known as an interpreter of art for the layman, Mr. Jacobson has lectured extensively before College and especially business men's groups in America.

He has studied here and abroad and has exhibited his work in New York, Chicago, and St. Louis. He is particularly known for his development of art with the American Indian. Recognition of Indian painting in the country is largely due to him.

Mr. Jacobson comes to the College from Chicago where he attended a meeting of the College Art Association.

He will be entertained at a luncheon Tuesday afternoon by the Art Club of the College. Interested persons are invited to attend.

Y-Nathan Club Organizes Class in Art of Make-Up

Y-Nathan Club Organizes Thespians Attend Initial Meeting of Dramatic Group

Y-Nathan Club Organizes Thespians at meeting of a class in the art of make-up organized by the Y-Nathan Club, dramatics organization on the campus last Thursday evening. P. Kelly, chairman of the department of speech, spoke on the general methods of make-up.

At the meeting tonight the group will put their knowledge into practice and the various members applying make-up to each other.

All students are invited to attend.

Mr. Hart was a week-end visitor. His sister, Marion Hart, is a student at the college.

MR. COOK SPEAKS AT PICKERING TREE-PLANTING

Mr. T. H. Cook of the department of history of the College, was the principal speaker at a tree-planting in celebration of the anniversary of the Constitution at Pickering last Sunday. Rev. Phillip O. Nystrand, a student in the College, is pastor of the Pickering Christian Church, which was host to Mr. Cook.

Mimeograph Paper Is Published By C.H.S. English Class

"The Mirror," Appears in First Edition of Year; Clara Lippman Is Sponsor

"The Mirror," College high school newspaper, made its first appearance of the year last Friday, October 29. The first issue was published as a class project by English III, section 2, with an editorial committee of Dorothy Johnson, Mary Elizabeth Price, and Charles Hartsough acting as regular newspaper staff members.

Particular emphasis in class was placed upon the writing of a forceful "Open Column," and feature articles which revealed the student's ability to use their imagination. Although this is a variation of the feature article proper, it seemed highly advisable to develop this other aspect of the student's mind and to give them a chance to do really "creative" work.

"The Mirror" is printed on regular mimeograph paper and was prepared by typists in the high school office. Clara Lippman, teacher of the English class is sponsor of the paper.

The next issue of "The Mirror" will be edited by the regular newspaper staff which includes:

Brilliant Pianist To Give Concert At College Nov. 12

Jerold Frederic Will Present Program Here on Dad's Day

Jerold Frederic, brilliant young pianist, will appear in concert at the College Friday, Nov. 12, according to Dr. Blanche H. Dow, chairman of the assembly committee.

Only thirty years old, Frederic has been attracting a great deal of attention in musical circles over the country. Critics have called him "A genius destined to become an eminent figure in the annals of pianistic greatness." He is said to have a brilliant technic and a great deal of creative ability.

Bearcats Will Battle Rockhurst Tomorrow Night

S. T. C. Doped to Win, But Game Probably Will Be Hard-Fought Struggle

The College Bearcats will go to Kansas City tomorrow for an engagement with the strong Rockhurst college eleven. For a non-conference game, the rivalry between the two teams is unusually hot.

The Bearcats, somewhat off-stride in the Warrensburg game, have been working diligently this week in an effort to reach top form again. The squad is in fairly good condition with only bumps and bruises on the injury roll call.

From comparative scores, Maryville is the favorite, considering her 47 to 0 victory over Springfield, who tied Central Missouri Teachers College, a team Rockhurst beat only 7 to 0. However, football is played on the field, not on paper, and the two teams look about even.

Rockhurst displays a versatile running attack built around Rozgay and Hutchins, fleet broken-field runners, and Ike Miller, 200-pound pile-driving fullback. Les "Honey" Spurek, veteran guard, is captain of the team and a power in the line.

Last year Rockhurst emerged the victor 13 to 6 in a wide-open battle. Everything points to a similar contest tomorrow.

C. H. S. STUDY HALL TEACHERS ARE ANNOUNCED

Study hall teachers in the College high school for the ensuing six weeks have been announced by Mr. Herbert R. Dieterich, principal. They are as follows: 8 o'clock, Alex Sawyer; 9 o'clock, Frederick Schneider; 10 o'clock, Richard Parnell; 11 o'clock, J. K. Phipps; 1 o'clock, Marjorie Schneider and Thelma Duncan; 2 o'clock, Beulah Frerichs; 3 o'clock, J. R. Singleton; 4 o'clock, Harland Farrar.

Student Senate Discusses Current Campus Problems

Appoints Committee to Draw Up Resolutions Regarding Student Conduct

The regular meeting of the Student Senate was held at Residence Hall on Thursday evening at 8:30. John Zuchowski, St. Joseph, president of the Student Government Association, opened the meeting with a discussion of the current problems of the campus.

After a discussion on the problem of noise and disturbances in the library and in the halls, both during the day and in the evening, a committee was appointed to draw up a set of resolutions governing student conduct in the Administration building both during and after class hours. The committee is Miss Ethel Hester, Mound City, chairman; Miss Mary Peck, Fairfax, and Mr. Flavel Maloy, Redding, Iowa.

The problem of pencil sharpeners was also discussed and a report given on the situation as it now is and settlement was made of the matter.

By a vote of the Senate it was decided to permit the elected vice-president of the senior class assume the duties of the president until the beginning of the winter quarter at which time a new president will be elected in the event that Virgil Woodside, Independence, does not return to school.

The problem of the men's smoker was given considerable time and the matter of lockers was also taken care of by the decision to ask any student whose locker is not in good working order to report it in order to permit the correction of the fault. Plans were also made for class meetings in the near future.

Dad Elliott to Speak In Assembly This Afternoon

Closing Talk in Religious Emphasis Week Will be Tomorrow at 11 o'clock

An assembly in the auditorium at 2 o'clock this afternoon will mark the fourth day of Religious Emphasis Week at the College. Dad Elliott will be in charge, and will hold private conferences from 3 o'clock until 4. A general meeting will be held tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the auditorium.

The closing event of the week will be an assembly at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Religious Emphasis Week, which has been held on this campus this week, has been sponsored by the College religious organizations, the Y.M. and Y.W.C.A. and Newman Club, and the Student Senate.

Urges Students To Invite Dads For Annual Day

Committees Plan to Make Occasion Outstanding for Fathers This Year

FOOTBALL GAME IS HIGHLIGHT

Plans are being completed at the College for the annual Dad's Day celebration, Friday, Nov. 12. Faculty and student committees are planning to make the day this year a gala one for the visiting fathers of students in the College.

At last year's celebration, ninety dads represented the group of 750 students. It is hoped that the number

LET'S MAKE IT 300!

The committee members planning for the celebration of the annual Dad's Day on the College campus have expressed the hope that at least 300 dads will be able to attend. It should be the duty of every College student to see that, if at all possible, his father attends the activities here that day. It's not too late. Invite him now!

this year will be increased to 300. The committee urges every student to invite his or her father.

Definite plans for the day had not been fully arranged at the time this newspaper went to press, but the committee in charge plans to have an excellent program of entertainment for the dads.

At noon a luncheon will be served in the Residence Hall dining room, and the day will be climaxed by the Maryville-Central football game on the local gridiron. In the evening, dads will be the guests of their sons and daughters at dinner.

Sororities and fraternities on the campus, as well as other organizations, plan to entertain the dads at dinner next Friday evening.

Missourian Readers Are Scattered Over Entire United States

Iowa Leads in Number of Papers Then Illinois, California And Michigan

From coast to coast and border to border, that's where the Northwest Missourian goes. Figures on the subscription list, released this week by T. A. Gaudin, sponsor of the paper, revealed the fact that the publication goes to twenty-seven states in the union.

Iowa ranks first in number of Missourian readers, with Illinois second, California third and Michigan fourth.

Other states to which the paper goes are: New Jersey, Wisconsin, North Dakota, District of Columbia, New York, Colorado, West Virginia, Ohio, Virginia, Oklahoma, Tennessee, Texas, Nebraska, New Mexico, Oregon, Maryland, Kansas, Wyoming, Arkansas, Georgia, Florida, Pennsylvania and Delaware.

COMMITTEES TO MEET

Dad's Day committees will meet Monday, November 8, at 5 o'clock in Room 326 to make final arrangements. Each organization in the College is asked to have two representatives present.

Bearcats Lose to Untied, Unbeaten Team Last Week-End

Warrensburg Defeats Maryville on Mule's Gridiron Last Friday, 26-7

The College Bearcats lost their fourth conference game to Warrensburg last Friday night on the Mules' gridiron by a score of 26 to 7. It was the second loss in the conference this season, the Bearcats having dropped a game to Cape Girardeau the week before.

The local team was outplayed during most of the game, but not so much as the score might indicate. The Mules took advantage of all breaks and turned them into scoring opportunities.

Warrensburg's first touchdown came at the close of the first quarter when, after a number of running plays, the Mules placed the ball on the Bearcats' three-yard line, and from there Bapst carried it over. The second touchdown came when Carr, Mule end, recovered a fumble that bounded out of the hands of Curtis on the 18-yard line, and ran across the goal line untouched.

At the beginning of the second half, Maryville took possession of the ball and it appeared as if the tide might turn when the local team marched to the one-yard line, but the Mules held the Bearcats to four downs. From there, Hammer kicked from behind his own goal line, but the Maryville team marched the ball back deep into Warrensburg territory and scored on a pass by Bill Bernau to John Zuchowski. Pelc kicked for the extra point.

In the closing period, Brown raced through the center of the Bearcat's line for 45 yards for a touchdown, and a few minutes later passed to Bapst for the final score of the game.

Marion Rogers was taken from the game in the last half with two badly bruised knees. With Rogers out of the line and Kiouss sitting on the sidelines most of the game suffering from a stomach ailment, the Bearcat line was weakened considerably. Bill Bernau did an excellent job of punting, in spite of the previous head injuries, and was well up in all departments of the game.

Coach Ryland Milner was not disappointed with the Maryville team's showing, realizing that it was more a lack of experience than anything. The head coach this week is whipping the team into shape for the game with Rockhurst in Kansas City tomorrow night.

The Mules have an outstanding team, built on the principle of speed and power, and is one of the few unbeaten, untied teams in the United States.

HERE'S the DOPE

By WM. EVANS

M.I.A.A. Standings

	W.	L.	T.	Pct.
Warrensburg	3	0	0	1.000
Cape Girardeau	3	0	0	1.000
Maryville	1	2	1	.333
Kirkville	0	1	2	.000
Rolla	0	1	1	.000
Springfield	0	3	0	.000

Victories last week by Warrensburg over Maryville, and Cape Girardeau over Kirkville have placed the winners in a tie at the top of the loop. Furthermore, the losers, along with Rolla and Springfield, are eliminated from the conference race. The Warrensburg-Cape game probably will decide the matter, although other teams may be instrumental.

The Kirkville vs. Springfield tilt is the only conference game scheduled for this week. Kirkville is favored to win, considering the records of the two teams. Springfield took a 38 to 19 clubbing at the hands of Missouri "B" last week. They will fare little better against Kirkville.

Cape Girardeau will seek competition outside the conference as she invades Carbondale Teachers of Carbondale, Ill. Having beaten such teams as Maryville and Kirkville, Cape should win handily. The ineffective showing of the Carbondale team this season has been a disappointment to its followers.

Cape's 14 to 0 triumph over Kirkville was cause for a real celebration by the Indians' fans. For fifteen years the Southeast Teachers have knocked at victory's door against Kirkville, but nobody answered. This year they forced breaks and smashed their way to a clean-cut win. George Godwin, virtually clinched a place on the M.I.A.A. by his brainy quarterbacking, running and passing.

Warrensburg will rest this week, hoping to be in tip-top shape for crucial conference engagements with Kirkville and Cape Girardeau.

The Bearcats will invade Kansas City for a game with Rockhurst college tomorrow. Although this is not a conference game, the keenest rivalry always exists between athletic teams of the two schools. Rockhurst is strong, relying upon speed and spirit. The Bearcats should win, but they must watch the fight of the Rockhurst boys to do so.

Know Your Team

Andrew Zembles, sophomore guard, lives in St. Joseph where he went to the Benton high school lettering two years in football and two years in track. He was captain of his football team and a member of the all-city team his last two years in high school. Andy is 19 years old, weighs 176 pounds and is 5 feet 10 inches tall. ## Society Journal Praises Dr. Dow

"The Independent," weekly Kansas City society journal, in the issue of Oct. 2, has the following to say concerning Dr. Blanche Dow, chairman of the foreign language department of the College.

"When a really thrilling person comes to town it is an education to meet her. Dr. Blanche H. Dow is just such a person. She spoke at the opening tea at the University Women's Club in the Sophian Plaza on Friday, October 1. We all think, or at least we think we think, so Dr. Dow told about 'A New Emphasis in American Thought.' Her ideas on this subject were interesting to all of us, and I know that her method of presentation of these ideas was stimulating. Dr. Dow is the president of the Missouri Branch of the American Association of University Women, having been elected at their state meeting in Marshall last April. We all find in Dr. Dow the ideal representative of University Women. She is a graduate of Smith college, and took her doctor's degree at Columbia university. She has spent much time abroad, thereby gaining, first hand, a background which has led her into the French department at Maryville, Missouri."

Says Merit System Should Be Followed For Public Offices

Dr. Mehus Believes Good Officials Are as Important as Good Laws

"It is just about as important to have a good body of public servants as it is to have good laws," declared Dr. O. Myking Mehus in an address he made on Thursday evening, Oct. 28, before a meeting of the American Association of University Professors at the First Methodist Church.

"Everyone realizes, of course," said Dr. Mehus, "that good laws are essential, but we still have folks who do not seem to understand that good laws do not execute themselves, but must be put into practice by public officials who are not only honest but also efficient and public spirited. In the long run the success or failure of our government will depend upon the kind of officials that are employed to carry out the laws are enacted."

Stating that there are a large number of people who today believe that the government personnel is not strong enough because in too many cases appointments are made for political reasons. Dr. Mehus explained that the merit system is not a partisan issue. "President Roosevelt," he affirmed, "has declared himself in favor of the movement; and in his radio address this week, Herbert Hoover came out strongly in favor of the merit system."

New Dealers Not In

In 1932 80 per cent of all federal civil employees were under the Civil Service or merit system, according to Dr. Mehus. "During the present administration," he said, "those who had been under the Civil Service were not disturbed. However, the great majority of the new jobs brought about under the New Deal are not under the Civil Service so that at the present time although the actual number of federal employees under Civil Service is greater than it was in 1932, the actual percentage is 60 per cent instead of 80 per cent under the merit system."

"When we come to the state and local officials, we find that they are under the merit system to a lesser degree than are the federal employees. Only 38 per cent of the state employees are under Civil Service, while 59 per cent of the municipal employees, and 14 per cent of the county, township, and district appointees are under the Civil Service."

Less Than One-Half

"Outside of the military and education employees, less than one-half of those who work in the various phases of the government are selected because of training and merit. The other one-half are selected by politicians. This means that all these employees are appointed not because of fitness for that particular job, but they are appointed because of political expediency, and because they have the endorsement of some political boss."

"In the selection of government employees there should be no residence requirement. It is just as ridiculous to require residence requirement in government service as to require residence requirement in selecting school teachers. When a community wants to select a classroom teacher or a city superintendent, it considers how to find the best person for the job irrespective of whether that particular person is a resident of that community or not. The same rule should apply to all other government employees."

No Soliciting

"The solicitation of government employees for campaign funds should be prohibited. Staying in the service should depend upon efficiency and not upon politics. In Missouri we need men and women to advocate the merit system, state and local governments. It is especially important time that the Social Security employ men and women qualified for the position than those who have political influence, because the work requires men and women who have been trained if it is to be efficiently and without a waste of public funds.

"We are glad to note the pointments made to date by the Social Security Commission made on the basis of merit because of political affiliation. We hope that this practice will be continued because this is the way in which we can be sure Social Security laws will be efficiently and honestly executed. People are dealing with the system of their fellow men. They are well trained for the job. The system will insure this."

C.H.S. Student Hurt In Accident

Two students in College High school last Thursday night were painfully injured in an accident about three miles west of Maryville. The students, Mabel Carmichael and Charles Bracken.

Mabel Carmichael was seriously injured, having a fractured wrist, an injured jaw and injuries to her arms. She was taken to the hospital Friday reported that she suffered internal injuries and had been feared. She had three teeth knocked out.

Charles Bracken suffered of both his wrists and was bruised.

Other young people in the automobile at the time of the accident were also painfully injured. They were Glen Belt, Gerald M. Mary Louise Gregg, and escaped with very minor injuries.

The five persons had been in a play rehearsal at the Grove schoolhouse near Maryville and were enroute home in their car, a Plymouth sedan, when they were traveling east to Bracken home at the time of the accident.

The young people's automobile just topped a steep hill and met by a model A Ford. Leo Roney, also of near Maryville, was driving the car. The young people said the car had but one light, and the driver tried to swing his car into a collision, the rear of his car hitting the front of the Roney car. The Myers car was thrown sideways and twice downhill, throwing the occupants partially through the car. Bracken was thrown thirty feet. Roney escaped.

The occupants of the car were taken to the hospital. The schoolhouse, but had no part in the play. The accident, and although the driver was not noticed that evening, he found his way home, which was about the scene of the accident.

All four of the badly injured young persons were taken to St. Francis hospital in St. Joseph.

KENNETH W. SIMONS

Mr. Kenneth W. Simons, Biology department of the University of Missouri, announces the arrival of his son, Kenneth W. Jr., born October 29, 1932. The young man has a weight of 15 pounds. Mr. Simons went to St. Francis hospital on Tuesday.

Social Events

College Dance
The College Dance band played at Tarkio last Saturday night. The boys and their conductor, Mr. Edelman, felt that this was the best performance since they have been organized as a dance band. New outfits of blue Eton jackets with gold lapels, and new white stands painted blue with light green and gold design added to the band's self-confidence and consequently made them quite popular in the crowd.

Association of University Professors
The Association of University Professors met Thursday night at the First Methodist church following dinner, a business session was held, in which the officers of the organization were re-elected for another year. Dr. O. H. Kingman then spoke on "The Social System in Government Personnel Appointment."

Y. M.-Y. W. C. A. Halloween Party

The Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A. entertained with a Halloween party at the Y.W. hut from 7:30 until 9:30 o'clock last Thursday evening.

Games and ghost stories furnished the evening's entertainment. Refreshments of cider and doughnuts were served to Miss Lucille Brumbaugh and Miss Olive De Luce, sponsors of the Y.W.; Mr. Dwight Dorrough, a sponsor of the Y.M., and the following young people: Alex Sawyer, Addison Hartman, Marian Nally, Maxine McClurg, Reba Moffitt, Margaret Schildknecht, Mary Myers, Glenn Hensley, Ruth Wray, Pauline Laughlin, Lula May Jennings, Leland Hamilton, Lucy Lea Brumbaugh, Harold Hainline, Mary Pettis, Opal Jackson, Francis Stubbs, Elizabeth Matheny, Alice Bilby, Dorothy Dalbey, Donald Hepburn, Virgil Elliott, Ralph Remy, Marjorie Eppard, Ruth Goodspeed, Marion Davies, Mary Ellen Uthe, Mary Virginia Garner, Ruth Shields, Ruth Larson, Elbert Shannon, Margaret Benetey, Sophronia O'Hara.

Kappa Omicron Phi Holds Masquerade
Kappa Omicron Phi, national home economics sorority, held a masquerade party at the sorority cabin in the College Park on Tuesday, October 26.

Mary Peck and LaDonna Switzer received the prizes given for the best costumes. Mary Peck represented a Scottish lass and LaDonna Switzer, a small child.

The entertainment for the evening consisted of the playing of Halloween games and the telling of ghost stories. Refreshments of cider and doughnuts were served to the group.

Members present were: Miss June Cozine, sponsor; Edith Wilson, Oregon; Mary Peck, Fairfax; Marian Burr, Maryville; Dorothy Dalbey, Burlington Junction; LaDonna Switzer, and Lois and Virginia Dean Miller, Grant City; Margaret Stafford, Tarkio; and Marjory Famer, Cambria, Ia.

Varsity Villager Women Who Live at the Home of Mrs. O. J. Willhoyte, 215 W. Seventh Street, Entertained with a Halloween Party, Tuesday Evening, Oct. 26. The Evening Was Spent in Popping Corn, Making Candy and Playing Cards. Helen Swinford and Robert Taylor Won the Prizes. Metcalfe-Catterson Wedding
Miss Billie Mary Metcalfe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Metcalfe of Maitland, and Halbert Catterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Catterson, Maryville, were married at 4 o'clock on Sunday of last week at the home of the bride's parents. The bride wore a floor-length gown of white silk lace over white satin, made redingote style with an Elizabethan collar. Her flowers were pink sweet peas and rosebuds. She wore a costume suit of navy and Alice blue with matching accessories for going away.

Following a short wedding trip, the couple will be at home on Mr. Catterson's farm northeast of Graham.

The bride is a graduate of the Maitland high school class of 1937, and entered Tarkio college in the fall. She will continue studying music.

Mr. Catterson is a graduate of Maryville high school and attended the College three years.

Sigma Tau Gamma, National Honorary Social Fraternity, Entertained with a Halloween Masquerade Dance Saturday, Oct. 30, at the Maryville Country Club from 8:30 until 12:00.

The club house was decorated in the traditional Halloween style. Corn fodder lined the walls and in the center of the dance floor was a large shock of fodder surrounded by pumpkins. Baled straw was used for seats. Chandeliers were decorated with corn and each light was a grinning, smirking jack-o-lantern.

Prizes for the best costumes were awarded to Miss Maxine Prewitt, a belle of the '90's, and James Stephenson, an unknown farmer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Norval Sayler and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Stalcup were chaperones. Music was furnished by the Yehle orchestra.

Give Luncheon

At 12:00 o'clock last Monday the Y.M., Y.W., and the Newman Club gave a luncheon at Residence Hall, for the purpose of discussing their plans and duties for this week.

Junior Newman Club Party

The Junior Newman Club of the College high held its first party of the season last Thursday evening at 311 West Third street.

Entertainment consisted of cards, games and dancing. Special guests were: Paul Strohm and the Misses Margaret and Katherine Franken. Refreshments of cider and cookies were served to the following members and friends: Mary Linneman, Pauline Ray, Betty and Mary Jane Shulte, Mary Margaret Baumli, Rita Tobin, Rita Sturm, Junior Ulmer, Paul Hunt, Wilbur Hainline, Eugene and Clarence Tobin, Edward Berg, Earl Heflin, Earl Pope, Franklin Bithos, James Linneman and Richard Collins.

Margaret Turney Is Married

"Wars Fought for Self Preservation," Says S. Surrey

Economics Professor Says There Is No Reason for U.S. to Become Aggressor

"Wars are fought for the sake of self-preservation rather than the desire to conquer," Sterling Surrey told a group of about fifty students and faculty members at the meeting of the Social Science club Tuesday evening.

"The United States has no reason to become an aggressor nation," Mr. Surrey told the group in Social Hall. "If we go to war it will be mob psychology before anything else, that would lead the United States into war in which we had no economic interest."

Can be Postponed

"War may be postponed, but conditions exist today that will make us unable to avoid it," Surrey said. "I do not want war any more than you do. But I think our chances to have world peace are slim. We must face the situation realistically."

"Wars in the past were motivated primarily by the desire to conquer, and secondarily to prevent another nation from conquering. Today the picture is changed from wars motivated primarily by the desire to conquer, to wars caused by the desire for self-preservation."

There are 60 million people in Germany living in a country only twice the size of the State of Missouri. Germany will and must become an aggressor nation because she lacks material resources. This situation is brought about by industrial maturity and by provisions of the treaty of Versailles. Germany must turn aggressor in order to defend herself against economic starvation.

Considers China Inferior

"Japan looks upon China as an inferior nation. So, she reasons, why should she not make use of her superiority by expanding in China? Japan foresees a day when millions of her people will face starvation. She, too, must become an aggressor nation for self-preservation."

"Italy needed more territory. Ethiopia offered the only probable solution. She was the only free nation in Africa, so Italy went down into that country to gain new territory for her own self-preservation."

A Predicted Downfall

"England, a conservative nation, is facing a predicted downfall. England's life-blood is her foreign trade.

Drain some of this life-blood and she will suffer. England is beginning to feel the threat of economic starvation. So in time, she will become an aggressor nation for her own self-preservation.

"France will become an aggressor nation too, because of her present economic depression and for protection against Germany. Russia may become an aggressor nation to uphold her political beliefs."

Many Sore Spots

"There are many economic sore-spots in Europe. The solution can be made simple. Give these overcrowded nations a part of the lesser crowded nations to use in their development, and to use as a source of raw materials. But, as a practical solution this falls down. No nation in the world today will give up any of its present boundaries."

"The United States has no reason to become an aggressor nation. She has an abundance of material resources, and she is not over crowded as is the case in many nations in Europe."

Mob Psychology

Mob psychology plays an important part in wars. We may be a pacifist nation, yet it is hard to deny the truth that there is a sense of intense nationalism present. If we go to war, mob psychology, before anything else, would lead the United States into a war in which we had no economic interest.

"Sooner or later these aggressor nations will fight each other off the face of the earth. Then the remaining nations may be able to establish some order of peace in the world. Is this the only solution?"

PLANS FOR EUGENE FIELD MEMORIAL PROGRESSING

Plans for the proposed national Eugene Field Memorial with a statue of Little Boy Blue to be erected in St. Joseph are progressing steadily and the campaign for funds, conducted on a national scale, will open soon.

The architect's drawing of the memorial, in the form of an exedra situated on Lover's Lane, has been completed by the St. Joseph firm of Eckel & Aldrich, the designers who collaborated with Herman A. MacNeil the New York sculptor who will model the statue and bas-reliefs. Pink Missouri granite will form the background for and contrast with the bronze figure of "Little Boy Blue," and his toys.

On the upper part of the central feature will be a portrait medallion of Eugene Field surrounded by carved verses of certain of his poems. On either side will be carved bas-reliefs of "Wynken, Blynken, and Nod" and "The Little Peach."

N.Y.A. DROPS OFF

It will be remembered by most students that in the first issue of this newspaper this term appeared a news story on the fact that the number of jobs on the National Youth Administration's program had been decreased by approximately one-half. At present, there are a few more than seventy students who receive N.Y.A. financial assistance, whereas last year there were more than 100.

Of course it was not only in Missouri that the national government "cut down" the N.Y.A. allotments, but it was over the entire United States. Statistics show that the number of students in the country receiving aid this year has been reduced from 450,000—the number on N.Y.A. last year—to 250,000. Most of those who were dropped from N.Y.A. jobs were unable to attend school when the doors of educational institutions were thrown open this fall.

Mr. Aubrey Williams, head of the N.Y.A., recently pointed out that even with the return of prosperity, 70 per cent of America's families earn less than $1,500 per year, and as a result, only 11 per cent of those of college age are in college, while 63 per cent of those of high school age enjoy "universal" education. Surveys have shown that N.Y.A. jobs augment these meager family incomes sufficient to enable additional students to go to school.

On October 14, American Youth Congress—with representatives on many campuses—sponsored demonstrations for N.Y.A. All phases of the program were carried out, showing the opportunities which that agency afforded persons of college and high school age that would not otherwise be offered them.

THE NORTHWEST MISSOURIAN goes on record as favoring national expenditures for the N.Y.A. program, endorses the work already done by that agency, and expresses the hope that the national government next year will increase, instead of decrease, appropriations for the carrying out of the aims of the N.Y.A. Money is being spent from the national treasury for items far less important and far more destructive than for the education of America's youth. May some of those expenditures be shifted and applied to the appropriations for the National Youth Administration!

A WORD ON TRADITION

It is with some temerity that we write on the subject of College traditions. Much has been said; in fact, too much, but still too little.

A college, as does an individual, grows and develops through the years. A college, in its growth, becomes enriched with the traditions and the customs that have grown up around its life through these years.

These traditions and customs give color, depth, richness, to the life of the college which is transmitted to the student by his association with the school. For college training is more than a mere perusal of books for knowledge or a momentary strain for a grade, it is rather an expansion of the inner self to more fully enjoy life with all its joys and its beauty.

One of our College traditions which shows due respect to the faculty and to the upperclassmen, is the seating arrangement in the auditorium and the method of exit. It is both commendable and appreciable that during the past few weeks this rule has been authoritatively enforced.

This is only one of our College traditions that has been somewhat neglected. It seems that this year more than ever before the students, and particularly the freshmen, have been quite careless about the observance of these traditions.

It is customary for all freshmen to make use of the east door of the Administration building of the College rather than the main entrance on the south; those who have done so have used the east door merely because it was a personal convenience. The freshmen are asked to wear green caps to denote their class ranking. Green caps are very conspicuous by their total absence.

We are decidedly in favor of at least a nominal obedience to College traditions and customs. Not only does it make for a more truly College atmosphere but we owe this to our faculty and to those students for whom this is the last year upon our lovely campus. We, ourselves, will one day be upperclassmen and seniors and then only will we appreciate the worth of these small courtesies and the wealth of our College life.

WE PRESENT OUR WISHES

Winter still seems far away, Christmas even farther and commencement is, well, ad infinitum, at least, for the seniors. Just the same, we want to get down on the record now what we want from Santa Claus, or, if he fails from the senior class as commencement gifts.

1. A heating system for the long walk this winter.
2. A smoking room.
3. Better acoustics in the auditorium.
4. A class in car-parking.

1.A. Before we are accused of short-sightedness, we hasten to add that we know it will be difficult to keep the wintry blasts off the long walk.

1.B. We can't help wanting to though.

2.A. We sorrowfully admit also that we don't know where anybody could find a room to smoke in either.

2.B. See 1.B.

3.A. In like manner, improving the acoustics in the auditorium is one thing to wish for and another to do. We haven't any idea how it could be done.

3.B. We're not sound engineers, just wishful thinkers.

4.A. This class on car-parking discourages us, too, on second thought. Who would teach it?

4.B. Faculty members get them stuck in just as crooked as students do.

A SUGGESTION FOR PLEASURE

What to do with leisure time is a problem which troubles not only the college student but everybody, once in a while. Recreation is a necessity, a medicine for the mind, and the more varieties of entertainment one can acquire the happier one is.

One of the cheapest and most profitable forms of amusement is reading. Books and a library, of course, are likely to take on a far different meaning for students. For them it is usually a place of work.

But all the books in a library are not text or reference books. Browse among the shelves a while. You will find a book which will interest you. Read it, and perhaps you will have added another pleasure to your life, one for which you will always be grateful.

An especially interesting session was held in history of education, 142, class last Friday when Ana Virginia Benitez visited the class and spoke, at the request of Mr. Phillips, on the educational activities and institutions in the Philippine Islands. The talk gave the class a first-hand slant on the project then being studied—education in our territories and outlying possessions.

STC Ramblings

By MARJORIE PERRY

Hats off to the College band.

Higher learning. A test given recently at one of the big universities revealed that some of the freshmen believe that Nero means "nothing", that Homer is a type of pigeon, that oxygen is an eight sided figure, and that Ulysses Grant is a tract of land on which Civil war battles were fought.

Comment overheard in the library: "She works when she walks."

Congrats: Hull and Olson. May you have many happy returns.

As the blonde boy fren came up, Glenna Smith was asked if she felt better. What did you reply, Glenna?

Where's Jane?
She's over eating at the dorm.
Don't be silly. Who ever heard of anyone overeating at the dorm!

"Alone in the moonlight is more fun if you aren't," quoted Durine Riddle.

"Darling," he said in tender tone, "I never loved but thee."
"Then we must part," Miss Bradley said,
"No amateurs for me."

Paul Strohm, do you really think you can wear your pin all this year? Five dollars is quite a lot of money.

Prof: "Are you cheating on this mid-term test?"

Red Johnson: "No sir, I was only telling him his nose was dripping on my paper."

College Band Gives Demonstration

The College band, under the direction of Mr. Clare Wigell, gave a demonstration for children of the elementary grades under Miss Mary Keith's supervision last Friday morning.

The band first played the march, "Semper Fidelis," by Sousa. One member from each section of players displayed the tone and range of the instrument he played while the children asked questions of Mr. Wigell, who answered them with a brief comment about each instrument displayed. The children were quite interested in this demonstration and evidenced much enthusiasm in some of the instruments with which they were not familiar. The following instruments were played:

Woodwinds—flute and piccolo, Belle Ward; clarinet, Henry S. alto saxophone, Ruth Anna; tenor saxophone, Bernice M.; baritone saxophone, J. C. O. Brass—trumpet, Donald M.; baritone, Robert Paul; trombone, William Boyd; sousaphone, E. Coffman; French horn, My. Breidenthal; mellophone, Ed Quillen.

Percussion—glockenspiel, P. Nixon.

The band played for its last selections, "The Victor Medley," and a "Medley" from sky-Korsakov.

The band has had two other public appearances within the last weeks. They appeared in the assembly Wednesday, October 2, and at the Maryville public high school for its regular assembly on Friday October 22. These selections were played at the high school: "Invincible Eagle," by Sousa, and "Silver," by Lehar, "Finlandia," by Sibelius, and "Skyliner," by Ford.

FURNISHES ELLIOTT MUSIC

The College department of music is furnishing music for the M. J. "Dad" Elliott assemblies and special meetings. The following selections have been prepared and presented on the programs:

"Ninety-First Psalm," MacDermott, sung by Merrill Ostrus, tenor.

"Beside Still Waters," Ham, sung by Belle Ward, soprano.

Selections by the male octet, composed of Merrill Ostrus, D. White, Edwin Tyson, Thomas B. Mynatt Breidenthal, Jack H. Ursle Crockett, jr., and Ralph B. ey. Mr. Hermann N. Schuster, coach of the octet.

"Gracious Lord of All Be Bach, sung by the upperclassmen's trio, composed of Helen S. man, Belle Ward and Alice W. side. Ruth Cofer is accompanying the group, and Miss Marian J. is coach.

PICTURES ARE REARRANGED IN SOCIAL HALL

Students who observe have doubt noticed the new arrangement of the pictures in Social Hall. Several of these have been presented to the College by various graduating classes and organizations.

One of these paintings, "Shore—Lake Superior," presented by the Philomathean Literary Society which disorganized a year ago, was painted by Olive S. DeLuce, chairman of art department here. It was painted near the north shore of Lake Superior, north of Duluth, and is thirty miles from the Canadian border. The coast line here is wild, rocky, and the lake is deep and en to rough, heavy storms of which the surf pounds the shore with steady reverberations.

Near the coast is a region covered with virgin forest, set aside as national park by Theodore Roosevelt. The painting by Miss DeLuce conveys the general atmosphere of the surf as it beats upon the shore.

This painting hangs on the side of the portrait of President Lamkin.

Attention Turns to Education Week

13, "Life-Long Learning."

Last year seven million parents and citizens visited schools during National Education Week. Ten million are expected for 1937. If these seven million mothers and fathers who went back to school during the 1936 observance were lined up single file three feet apart, the line would reach from Boston to Washington, D. C., to Los Angeles and then up to San Francisco. This does not include those who were reached by press, radio, and other means.

Caroline S. Woodruff, president of the National Education Association, sends the following message to the citizenry: "Fathers, mothers, and citizens of America! Visit your schools during American Education Week, November 7-13, 1937. Next to the home itself, the school is your greatest ally in helping to prepare your children to take their places in the world. During this week, let us thank God for schools and for a country where all may learn to think for themselves and have the freedom of intelligent, self-directing citizenship. Government by dictatorship is repugnant to the American spirit. Such government will never be needed in America so long as we have intelligent, responsible citizenry. Such a citizenship is the great product of our schools—the reason why education is so important in the United States. Visit your school and help to make it better."

C. H. S. HONOR ROLL IS ANNOUNCED

Mr. Herbert R. Dieterich, principal of the College high school, last Monday announced the honor roll for the first six weeks of the fall quarter.

DR. J. P. KELLY ATTENDS DEBATE DIRECTOR'S MEET

Dr. J. P. Kelly, head of the speech department of the College, attended the annual joint meeting of Missouri-Kansas debate directors at the Kansas City School of Law, Oct. 22 and 23.

Mr. Norman P. Gordon, director of public speaking at Rockhurst college, was re-elected president of the Missouri division.

Two regional representatives of the National Labor Relations Board discussed the work of that group and explained how it would operate under the system proposed by the current debate question.

Central college, Fayette, and the University of Ottawa, Ottawa, Kas., presented a debate on the labor disputes question.

A committee was appointed to decide the date for the Missouri state debate tournament in Columbia, and plans were made for attendance at the regional student legislature, a mock legislature held annually in Topeka, Kansas.

person to face is the truth," declared the speaker.

The relative comparison of the advantage of a college student over an uneducated person was pointed out by "Dad" Elliott. The chances to succeed for a graduate of elementary school were one in two thousand students, high school, one in four hundred and a college graduate, one in forty students.

"Dad" Elliott said that the attitude of life which was acquired during the school years is very important as it seldom changed in life. In high school one out of four changes his attitudes in life, while only one out of nine graduates changes his attitude.

The speaker pointed out had been following two men's careers and only eight had changed their attitude from what they were at the university.

"What we are to be we are becoming. As long as the spark of desire there is rank and file of the students on in life as they have in college," the speaker said.

"We are not going to stop we are, we are going to blame my own generation than I blame you. You are duct of what is called the generation."

The speaker said that in not more than three were willfully ambiguous, per cent spiritually hungry, teen per cent are sufficed, per cent pathetic.

In conclusion the speaker said: "The whole of life must be to the whole of personality."
